

FISC South Island Worker Representative – Calls for expression of interest

The Forest Industry Safety Council is seeking a worker representative for the South Island.

The Council has agreed the following criteria for the candidates:

1. good knowledge of the forest industry
2. experience working in forestry or with forestry workers or communities
3. have existing networks into forestry communities
4. ability to build relationships with different types of people
5. knowledge of what health and safety representatives do
6. have experience as a worker representative or been a trainer or mentor for other workers
7. excellent communication skills.

The current work commitment is associated with preparation for and attendance at Council meetings. There are 6-8 meetings per year with 2-3 face to face in Wellington and the others via Zoom meetings.

The Council will meet costs for travel and meeting attendance.

Please contact Fiona Ewing for further details and to register your interest.
